System Requirements For SEOTextEd:

As you can see we have been hard at work on the new server and we are really proud of the result. The client is a fully playable game right now with a ton of features. But we know that this is just the start and we want to expand the available modes, available maps, and content as time goes on. To do that, we need your help! The biggest feature we'd like to add to the game is multiplayer. For this to be a reality, we need to have a functioning server and we need players to come and play
